

I understanding this is the right email for submissions to the consultation over the future of domestic energy pricing tariffs. If not, please forward to the correct department.

Tariff plus unit price makes it difficult to compare. Overheads should be included in unit prices then it is easy to compare.

Thank you.

