

Create a Boiler Upgrade Scheme installer account (version 2)

Overview

To participate in the Boiler Upgrade Scheme (BUS), all businesses must create an installer account with Ofgem.

BUS installer accounts provide a necessary layer of security to the scheme. They help us:

- verify the identity of anyone who asks to create an account, and check that they have the legal authority to act on behalf of their business
- check that a business is eligible for the scheme
- verify business bank details, so that we can make BUS payments safely and securely
- make sure that any additional users on the account are allowed to act on behalf of the business
- streamline the voucher application process by removing the need to check business details for each application

Becoming an 'authorised representative'

By completing this form, you will become your business's authorised representative for the scheme.

This means you will be:

- the only person in your organisation who can change the information we hold about your business, for example its bank account details
- Ofgem's first point of contact should we ever need to speak to someone about the installer account in general (this will not include specific, day-to-day correspondence about individual applications, unless you are also the person in your business who made the application)

Sending us your form and mandatory documents

Please complete this form and email it to us, along with all the business and personal documents we require.

Email: BUS.accountcreation@ofgem.gov.uk

A note about data privacy

All data and documents will be stored and handled in line with the BUS privacy policy:

1. About your business

What is your business's MCS certification number?

Your business must be a member of the Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS) to take part in the Boiler Upgrade Scheme.

This starts with the first three letters of your business's certification body, for example 'NAP-12345'.

What is your business's company number?

You can find this online: <https://find-and-update.company-information.service.gov.uk>

You do not need to provide this if you are, for example, a sole trader.

What is your business's registered name?

If your business is a company, this is what appears in the Companies House record.

You can find this online: <https://find-and-update.company-information.service.gov.uk>

Does your business trade under a different name?

Yes

No

If yes, what is your business's trading name?

What is the registered address for your business?

If your business is a company, this is what appears in the Companies House record.

You can check this online: <https://find-and-update.company-information.service.gov.uk>

If you are a sole trader, this is where official correspondence should be sent.

Building name or number and street

Include unit, office, or floor numbers where appropriate.

Town or city

Postcode

Does your business have a trading address that's different from its registered address?

A trading address is where your business carries out most of its business activities.

Yes

No

If yes, what is the trading address for your business?

Building name or number and street

Include unit, office, or floor numbers where appropriate.

Town or city

Postcode

What are your business's bank account details?

This is where you want Ofgem to pay your business whenever a BUS voucher is successfully redeemed.

This must be a UK bank account that can accept payments in pound sterling.

Account name

This is the name of the individual or business on the account, not the name of the bank.

2. About you

You must have the legal authority to act on behalf of your business.

If your business is a limited company, you must be a company officer (for example, company director or company secretary), listed under the 'People' tab of the Companies House record.

You can find this online: <https://find-and-update.company-information.service.gov.uk>

What is your full name?

What is your work email address?

You must use this email address to send the completed form to us.

Does anyone else have access to this email?

For security, we cannot create an installer account if this email is accessed by anyone other than the authorised representative.

Yes

No

What is your telephone number?

This must be a specific contact number for you, not a general business number.

What is your home address?

We need this to be able to run our identity checks.

What is your date of birth?

For example, 22 02 1979.

We need this to be able to run our identity checks.

3. Other users on the account (optional)

Give details of up to five additional users on this form who you want to be able to use the scheme after we've set up the installer account.

All additional users must be directly employed by your business. They cannot be subcontractors or freelancers.

Please choose new users carefully. We will not verify or run background checks on any other users on the account, and we will hold your organisation accountable for the accuracy of the information they provide.

If you need more than five users, you'll need to email BUS.accountcreation@ofgem.gov.uk

Permissions that all users have

All users on the installer account will be able to:

- submit new voucher applications
- edit existing applications
- respond to queries about submitted applications
- cancel voucher applications
- apply to redeem vouchers, after a new system has been commissioned

Optional permission to add, remove and manage other users

In addition, you can choose whether to give someone 'user management' permission, which means they can:

- add new users to the account
- remove users from the account
- edit the permissions of other users on the account (not including the authorised representative)

Note: an installer account cannot have more than five additional users with user management permission.
