

National Grid Electricity System Operator Limited

Electricity transmission licence

Special Conditions

We have only set out proposed changes to Special Condition 2.7 within this document. Note that this includes inserting a new subparagraph between subparagraphs 2.7.2 and 2.7.3 of the original document. Text proposed to be added is marked by double underscoring.

Special Condition 2.7 Prohibition on engaging in preferential or discriminatory behaviour

Introduction

2.7.1 The purpose of this condition is to prevent the licensee from unduly preferring, or discriminating between, i) Transmission Licensees; and / or ii) Electricity Distribution Licensees.

Part A: Prohibition on engaging in preferential or discriminatory behaviour

2.7.2 The licensee must not, in meeting its obligations under this licence, unduly discriminate as between other Transmission Licensees, or unduly prefer any other Transmission Licensee, or unduly prefer itself over any other Transmission Licensee.

2.7.2A The licensee must not, in meeting its obligations under this licence, unduly discriminate against any Electricity Distribution Licensee(s) or unduly prefer any Electricity Distribution Licensee(s), or unduly prefer itself over any Electricity Distribution Licensee(s).

2.7.3 On direction by the Authority, the licensee must keep and maintain such records concerning its compliance with this condition as are in the opinion of the Authority sufficient to enable the Authority to assess whether the licensee is complying with this condition and as are specified in any such direction; and the licensee must provide to the Authority such records in such manner and at such times as the Authority may require.