Dear Stakeholders,

Erratum Notice - Statutory consultation on a proposal to modify the special conditions of the Electricity Transmission Licence held by National Grid Electricity System Operator Limited – March 2023

On 14 March 2023, we<sup>1</sup> published a statutory consultation to modify the special conditions and make housekeeping amendments to the electricity transmission licence held by NGESO (the 'Licence'). These housekeeping amendments were based on our decision published on 3 February 2023<sup>2</sup>. It has come to our attention, however, that further unrelated changes to Chapter 4 of the licence took effect from 14 December<sup>3</sup> and 26 December 2022<sup>4</sup>. Due to these technical synchronisation issues, we have subsequently identified that the drafting changes proposed in our Statutory Consultation do not use the most up to date special conditions of the Electricity Transmission Licence held by NGESO, and therefore omit all of the changes introduced to the licence on both dates. It is therefore necessary to consolidate the 14 December and 26 December 2022 changes into the final version of the licence. These consolidations do not have a substantive effect on the modifications we are currently consulting on. The result of this ongoing Statutory Consultation will reflect those changes and address any cross-referencing issues in our Decision.

Yours faithfully,

Joe Slater
