

Received 23 January 2025

Should urgently achieve a solution to non-working smart meters denying domestic users the benefits of smart meters including cheaper smart meter tariffs.

My understanding is that where alternative technical solutions for signal related issues would work these are still generally either not allowed or at least firmly resisted with lengthy delay in reaching a solution.

Gavin Kinnell