RE: Distribution Flexibility Services Procurement Statement

I, Jose Contreras, director of Aidien Limited, confirm that Aidien has not tender for, procure, or dispatch any flexibility services from 1st April 2022 to the 31st March 2023.

Aidien Limited has only recently received its distribution licence and is currently undergoing the controlled market entry process with an expectation of going live in December 2024. We therefore do not expect to procure any flexibility services in this year.

Yours sincerely,
