CMAG Review - Secretariat Self-Review

Dear Simon,

When establishing the Capacity Market Advisory Group (CMAG), Ofgem committed to reviewing CMAG to ensure it remained fit for purpose and continued to maximise benefits for Capacity Market participants and consumers.

The purpose of the review is to assess the CMAG against the CMAG Objectives to:

1. Ensure CM Rule changes submitted to Ofgem via CMAG further Ofgem's principal objective;
2. Present recommendations in a clear, robust and well-evidenced manner; and
3. Make sure that CMAG operates and is administered in an efficient, impartial, and transparent manner.

Process

Ofgem plans to conduct this review in three stages:

1. A self-review of the CMAG by the CMAG Secretariat;
2. A 6-week Call for Input open to all CMAG Members, Delivery Partners, and other interested parties; and
3. An Ofgem review based on information gathered in the above stages and its assessment of the CMAG against its objectives.

Outcome

Ofgem will inform stakeholders of the outcome of the review and, if necessary, provide advice or directions on improvements to be made. Ofgem aims to publish its final report by 31 December 2026.

Secretariat Self-Review

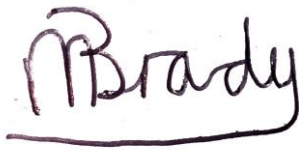

Ofgem requests that the CMAG Secretariat begins its self-review of its role as the facilitator of the CMAG. Whilst the outcomes of the CMAG are qualitative in nature, the self-review should consider:

- How the Secretariat has aligned the CMAG to the objectives;
- The end-to-end process of Change Proposals;
- The engagement between the CMAG and Capacity Market Delivery Partners;
- Wider advice given to support the success of the Capacity Market; and
- The facilitation and administration of the CMAG.

The CMAG Secretariat should provide Ofgem with its self-review no later than October 2, 2026.
