Contracting Party wishes to make a Third Party Claim (as defined in sub-clause 10.5 below) against the other Party (“the Other Party”) which would but for this sub-clause have been a dispute or difference referred to arbitration by virtue of sub-clause 10.3 above then, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-clause 10.3 above which shall not apply and in lieu of arbitration, the court in which the legal proceedings have been commenced shall hear and completely determine and adjudicate upon the legal proceedings and the Third Party Claim not only between the tariff customer and the Defendant Contracting Party but also between either or both of them and the Other Party whether by way of third party proceedings (pursuant to the Rules of the Supreme Court 1965 or the County Court Rules 1981) or otherwise as may be ordered by the Court.

10.6 Sub-Clause 10.4 above shall apply only if at the time the legal proceedings are commenced no arbitration has been commenced between the Defendant Contracting Party and the Other Party raising or involving the same or substantially the same issues as would be raised by or involved in the Third Party Claim. 11.3 Each Party irrevocably waives any objection which it may have now or hereafter to the laying of the venue of any Proceedings in any such court as is referred to in this clause 11 and any claim that any such Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum and further irrevocably agrees that a judgment in any Proceedings brought in the English courts shall be conclusive and binding upon such Party and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.
