

Smart Metering Data Privacy – Meeting 2 - Data Use

Date and time of Meeting	14 December 2010. 09.30-12.30
Location	Conference room 9. Ofgem, 9 Millbank London. SW1P 3GE

1. Introduction to the workshop- Ofgem

2. Discussion of costs and benefits case for granular data

- 2.1. The need for granular data to assist Suppliers' purchasing from the wholesale market
- 2.2. The need for granular data to allow the development of fit-for-purpose tariff structures and developing new products and services
- 2.3. The need for granular data to Improve suppliers' understanding of energy consumption
- 2.4. The need for granular data to help engagement with consumers on energy efficiency
- 2.5. The need for granular data to reduce theft and debt.

3. Current industry Data flows, why they are needed and how Smart metering could improve their efficiency.

4. Discussion of options for achieving benefits without granular data

- 4.1. Discussion on applicability of amalgamated data
- 4.2. Discussion on applicability of representative data
- 4.3. Discussion on the use of anonymised data

5. Next meeting