

The background of the slide features a close-up, artistic photograph of interlocking metal gears. The lighting is dramatic, with bright highlights and deep shadows, creating a sense of motion and mechanical complexity. The colors are primarily metallic greys and blues, with some warmer tones where the light hits the edges of the teeth.

Workshop 3: Gas SCR draft policy decision

Working through the business rules

15th February 2012

Next steps

- Consider stakeholder responses
 - Provide feedback to Authority
- Consider changes to the draft policy decision to address concerns raised in stakeholder responses
- Progress draft code and licence changes with National Grid Gas and Xoserve
- Workshop on Further Interventions will take place on 08 March 2012 at 1pm at Central Hall, Westminster

Changes to our project team

- There has been a restructure of the markets division
 - Emma Kelso (Associate Partner) has replaced Ian Marlee (Partner) to oversee the wholesale markets division
 - Tom Corcut (Senior Economist) has replaced Giles Stevens (Head of Competition Economics)
- Tabish Kahn (Senior Economist) will be replacing Anna Barker (Senior Economist) as project lead
 - In the meantime Steffen Felix (Economist) should be the first point of contact for the team steffen.felix@ofgem.gov.uk
