

Dear Mr MacFaul

I am sending this to urge Ofgem to take action over the lack of standardisation of the way in which charges are levied for domestic energy which seems to be designed to make it impossible for consumers to easily compare the price of energy from different suppliers. What is needed is a simple unit price which we can all understand.

I hope Ofgem will take action on this.

Yours sincerely

