

Smart Grid Forum Key Note Seminar

Assessing the impact of low carbon technologies on Great Britain's power distribution networks

Monday 12 November 2012

Venue: The Rubens Hotel Hotel 39 Buckingham Palace Road London SW1W 0PS www.rubenshotel.com

Agenda (subject to change)

09.45-10.30 Registration and Coffee

10.30-10.40 Welcome and opening Remarks – Energy Policy, Carbon Reduction and the need for the Smart Grid Forum

Sandy Sheard, Deputy Director, Future Electricity Networks, Department of Energy and Climate Change

10.40-10.50 Introduction to the Smart Grid Forum

Steve Johnson, Chief Executive, Electricity North West

10.50-11.30 Context of the Work and Phase 1 Report

John Scott, Director, Chiltern Power Ltd

11.30-11.50 Update on the work of Work Streams 1, 2 and 6

Gareth Evans, Head of Profession, Engineering, Ofgem

11.50-12.45 WS3 Model – Development and considerations

Dave A Roberts, Sustainable Networks Director, EA Technology

12.45 LUNCH

13.30-14.30 WS3 Model – Main findings and conclusions

Dave A Roberts, Sustainable Networks Director EA Technology

14.30-15.00 Development of Model , Uses and Future WS3 Programme

Mike Kay, Network Strategy Director, Electricity North West

15.00 Q&A & Closing Remarks

Steve Johnson, Chief Executive, Electricity North West