MODIFICATION TO SPECIAL CONDITION 1 OF THE INDEPENDENT GAS TRANSPORTERS' LICENCE

On 31 January 2014, we¹ published a statutory consultation proposing changes to Special Condition 1 of the Independent Gas Transporters' (IGTs') licence.² We are publishing on our website alongside this letter those responses which are not confidential.

The responses to the consultation supported the proposed changes. Some respondents proposed additional changes to Special Condition 1. However, we consider these changes to be outside the scope of the specific proposed changes we consulted on in our Statutory Consultation. Therefore we have decided to only proceed at this point with the modifications to the licence in our statutory consultation.

I attach our modification decision and reasons notice. The new version of Special Condition 1 is in Schedule 1 of the notice. This direction takes effect on 4 July 2014.

Yours sincerely,

Andy Burgess
Associate Partner, Transmission and Distribution Policy
