

Good day

I do not believe that the amended process will have any benefit to the industry and specifically the generators.

The overall process of Energy production needs to be reviewed on a National basis and parties should be forced to work together, i.e. Solar, Wind, DNO to ensure a robust supply of electricity at the point of usage.

Allowing commercially driven schemes on an ad-hoc basis is counter-productive in my view

Regards

Andrew Prinsloo MIET
Director
Telestructure International
14/02/2014