

I would like to add my vote to others against having all those monstrous Windmills covering our island and disrupting the landscape and a danger to the birds and wildlife of Shetland. Lots of cash for short term return. Look at other more sustainable less disruptive options please.