Question	Was the participation of Elexon considered? Why is there no evidence of their support for the projects.?
Notes on question
Answer	Elexon are a key stakeholder in the EVOLUTION pilot and have been consulted throughout the development of the proposal and we would conclude that in reference to the work that we have used to complete and support our assumptions and benefits case that there is significant evidence of their support for the EVOLUTION project. Throughout the bid documentation there are a number of references to Elexon and the reports and work that they have undertaken to date that supports the principle of the development of a local balancing and settlements market. As we progress towards the announcement on the award of funding to take forward the EVOULTION, we continue to liaise with Elexon to ensure that we can deliver the objectives of EVOLUTION.
