Submission section question relates to	Appendix VII: Project Plan
Topic	Project Plan
Question	What happens to the funding if the project does not proceed beyond a stage gate?
Notes on question
Answer	In the event that the decision is taken to not proceed following a stage gate review then an analysis of the funding which had been spent to date would be undertaken and presented to Ofgem. NGET would then discuss with Ofgem the implications and what options may be available. These may depend upon how far along things were in the development timeline of the facility. Ultimately the decision may be made to revert to decommissioning the site. The treatment of the NIC funding in this instance would need to be discussed and agreed with Ofgem.
